

Restoring the hearts of the fathers to the children

Colwards Lie Because They Are Afraid of the Truth

IN various ways has the devil reballed and resisted the truth. Sometimes his aim has been to destroy the truth by defending it. He maintains that there is one only Lord, the Almighty Creator of the world, in order that out of this doctrine of the unity he may fabricate a heresy. He says that the Father Himself came down into the Virgin, was Himself born of her, Himself suffered, indeed was Himself Jesus Christ.

Here the old serpent has fallen out with himself, since, when he tempted Christ after John's baptism, he approached Him as "the Son of God;" surely intimating that God had a Son, even on the testimony of the very Scriptures, out of which he was at the moment forging his temptation: "If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." Again: "If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence; for it is written, He shall give His angels charge concerning thee"—referring no doubt, to the Father—"and in their hands they shall bear thee up, that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone."

Or perhaps, after all, he was only reproaching the Gospels with a lie, saying in fact: "Away with Matthew; away with Luke! Why heed their words? In spite of them, I declare that it was God Himself that I approached; it was the Almighty Himself that I tempted face to face; and it was for no other purpose than to tempt Him that I approached Him. If, on the contrary, it had been only the Son of God, most likely I should never have condescended to deal with Him."

However, he is himself a liar from the beginning, and whatever man he instigates in his own way; as, for instance, Praxeas. For he was the first to import into Rome from Asia this kind of heretical pravity, a man in other respects of restless disposition, and above all inflated with the pride of confessorship simply and solely because he had to bear for a short time the annoyance of a prison; on which occasion, even "if he had given his body to be burned, it would have profited him nothing," not having the love of God, whose very gifts he has resisted and destroyed.

For after the Bishop of Rome had acknowledged the prophetic gifts of Montanus, Prisca, and Maximilla, and, in consequence of the acknowledgment, had bestowed his peace on the churches of Asia and Phrygia, he, by importunately urging false

A Note From the Editor

From reading the Pentateuch, it appears that men were constantly “preparing” for one thing or another at the direction of His Majesty. It seems to me that our day is no different. If you’ve “got your ears on” you’ll see that the call to prepare has been a constant theme since the second issue of The Voice of Elijah® in January 1991.

My understanding is that those who hear and believe will be prepared.

The Voice of Elijah®, January 1991, p. 13

Larry Harper hasn’t stopped emphasizing the importance of preparing while there is time since that very issue. I have more excerpts than there is room for in this article, but here is a sampling of Larry’s admonitions:

I thank God I’ve not been called to establish a church, ask people for money, or travel all over the world preaching the Gospel. I’m only here to research and write—to warn the Elect that what they currently believe may be fatally flawed. The preparations they have made to enable them to meet Jesus Christ in victory may not be sufficient. God requires total commitment.

The Voice of Elijah®, April 1991, p. 17

The days of the mass meeting of God’s People for the purpose of teaching and edification are all but over. From here on, for True Believers, there will be mainly quiet preparation for the Final Days. Toward that end, I have a body of information I have been charged to deliver to those of you who are God’s Own.

The Voice of Elijah® Update, September 1992, p. 3

At the time of the Protestant Reformation, Satan suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of those True Believers on the Protestant side. However, the recovery of the Truth concerning salvation by faith alerted him to the fact that God had finally begun working to prepare a people for the Return of Jesus Christ.

The Voice of Elijah® Update, September 1992, p. 3

God does His best work in the quietness of your prayer closet. Prepare yourselves well now for the outpouring of His Spirit, and you can be certain God will use you later.

The Voice of Elijah®, April 1993, p. 7

The question you should be asking is this: What should I do to prepare for the time when Satan takes his seat in the rebuilt Temple as the “abomination of desolation”? For what it’s worth, Jesus said this: (Matthew 24:3–31).

The Voice of Elijah®, October 2002, pp. 16–17

Every day that passes brings us one day closer to the inevitable “revelation” of the Glory of “The Light” of the Living Word of God. Fools assume everything

Fear of the Lord Is Just the Beginning of Wisdom; Acting on It Is Proof

Over the past thirty-five years, I have gradually, in bits and pieces, revealed my understanding of my calling, the message of the Scriptures, and the white-hot hatred the Living God harbors for those who choose to reject, twist, and distort the Truth that Christ handed down to His disciples as The Apostolic Teaching. Over that span of time, I have not been shy about telling you not only that God called me to do what I am doing but also why He called me to do it. Along “The Way,” I have explained various parts of the Seven Sealed Messages the Prophets hid in the text of the Hebrew Scriptures; but I have done it in such a way as to make it difficult for anyone but the most dedicated to put even one of those Seven Messages together into a coherent whole. That was intentional on my part. I told you the following in the July 2025 issue of The Voice of Elijah® newsletter:

In this issue, I am going to summarize a few things I have explained over the years just to make sure those who hear what God called me to explain have no excuse if they decide not to believe. The sad fact is, most will go on believing the goofy concepts Satan has inculcated in their minds so that they can do whatever it is he wants them to do. ...

The problem the vast majority of people face today is, they don't know what they don't know; but the Truth is, they have a vested interest in not knowing, and therein lies the reason why the God of Truth is finally poised and ready to instantaneously craft His greatest and best Creation before beginning His rest on the seventh “day” of this Creation. They are, in fact, in the very same situation the Prophet Isaiah describes in the following passage:

[of {the} Drunkards of] [Ephraim]!

[Even {the} Supreme Beauty] [of its Beauty]
{is} [a [drooping] Flower],
[Which] {is} [on] [{the} Head] [of a Hollow]
[of Fatty Portions] [hammered by] [Wine]!
²[Guess what!] [My Master has] [One Who Is Strong]
[and dominant]—
[Like a Rainstorm] [of Hail];
[A Total Terror] [of Stinging Rain]
[Like a Rainstorm] [{with} powerful], [overflowing]
[Waters],
[He has caused to rest] [on {the} Earth] [by Hand]!
³[{The} Crown of] [{the} Ascension]
[of {the} Drunkards of] [Ephraim]?
[They will be trampled] [under Foot]!
⁴[And [a [drooping] Flower] will be]
[The Supreme Beauty] [of his Beauty],
[Which] {is} [on] [{the} Head] [of a Hollow]
[of Fatty Portions]!
[Like a First-ripe Fruit] [before] [Summer]
[Which] [the One Who sees], [sees].
[He will swallow] [it] [when it {is} still] [in His Palm].
⁵[On [that] Day], [His [Supreme] Majesty] [will be]
[a Crown] [of Supreme Beauty]—
[And a [beautiful] Diadem] [for {the} Remnant]
[of His People];
⁶[And {the} Spirit] [of a Decision Based on the Truth]
[For the One Who dwells] [above]
[The Decision Based on the Truth];
[And Valor], [for those who turn back] [{the} Battle]
[at {the} Gate].
⁷[But even] [these] [were intoxicated]
[by {the} Wine],
[And [they wandered around]
because of {the} Liquor]!
[Priest] [and Prophet] [were intoxicated]

[by {the} Liquor].
 [They were swallowed] [by] [The Wine].
 [They wandered around] [on account of] [The Liquor].
 [They were intoxicated] [by looking].
 [They wavered] [Making a Decision],
⁸[Because] [all] [{the} Tables] [were filled with]
 [A Vomit] [of Filthiness], [without] [a Place]!
⁹[To [whom] would He teach] [Knowledge]?
 [And to [whom] would He provide an understanding of] [a Message]?
 [Those who have been weaned] [from Milk]!
 [{Those} too mature] [for Breasts]!

¹⁰[Because]:

“[A Command] {refers} [to a Command];
 [A Command] {refers} [to a Command].
 [A Line] {refers} [to a Line];
 [A Line] {refers} [to a Line].
 [A Little Bit] {is} [here];
 [A Little Bit] {is} [there].”

¹¹[Because]:

[He will speak] [to] [This] [People]
 [With a [sneering] Lip] [and in [another] Tongue],
¹²[What] [He said] [to them]:
 “[This] {is} [The Resting Place]!
 [You must give rest] [to {the} weary].
 [And this] {is} [The Tranquility]!”
 [But he was [not] willing] [to listen].

¹³[So [The Word] [of His Majesty] [to them] will be]:

“[A Command] {refers} [to a Command];
 [A Command] {refers} [to a Command].
 [A Line] {refers} [to a Line];
 [A Line] {refers} [to a Line].
 [A Little Bit] {is} [here];
 [A Little Bit] {is} [there].”

[In order that] [they walk] [and stumble] [backwards]
 [And are broken] [and trapped] [and captured].

¹⁴[Therefore], [listen to] [The Word] [of His Majesty],
 [You [Scoffing] Mortal Men],
 [Who have control over] [This] [People] [Who] {is}
 [in Jerusalem],

¹⁵[Because] [you have said]:

“[We have cut] [a Legal Agreement] [with] [Mot].
 [And [we have acted in accordance with] [a Vision]
 with] [The Sea of El].
 [When] [an [overflowing] Breaker] [passes over],
 [it will [not] come to us],
 [Because] [we have turned [a Lie] into] [our Shelter]
 [And [we have hidden ourselves] in a Falsehood]!”

¹⁶[Therefore], [this is what] [My Master],
 [His Majesty], [has said]:

“[Guess what! I am] [going to lay] [a Stone]
 [in Zion]—[a [tested] Stone]!
 [A [precious] Corner] [of a solidly founded] Foundation]!
 [The one who believes] [will [not] make {it} move quickly].
¹⁷[I will turn] [a Decision Based on the Truth]
 [into a Line],
 [And a Declaration of Not Guilty] [into a Level].
 [Then Hail] [will sweep away] [{the} Shelter] [of a Lie],
 [And Waters] [will overflow] [a Hiding Place].
¹⁸[Then [Your Legal Agreement] [with] [Mot]
 will be covered up],
 [And Your Vision] [with] [The Sea of El]
 [will [not] stand].
 [When] [an [overflowing] Breaker] [passes over],
 [Then you will become] [What Is Trampled] [by Him].
¹⁹[Whenever] [He passes over], [He will take] [you].
 [He will pass over] [each and every Morning],
 [During {the} Day] [and during {the} Night],
 [To provide an understanding of] [a Message]
 {that is} [nothing but] [Sheer Terror]!”

²⁰(1) [Because] [The Sleeping Mat] [is too short]
 [to stretch oneself out],
 [And [He bound up] The Weaving]
 [when He wrapped it up]!

²¹(2) [Because] [His Majesty] [will arise]
 [like Mount] [Perazim],
 [He will be disturbed] [like a Valley] [in Gibeon]!
 [To make] [What He Is Making]!
 ([What He Is Making] {is} [strange]!)

[To do] [His Physical Labor]!
 ([His Physical Labor] {is} [foreign]!)

²²[So now], [do [not] scoff],
 [Lest] [your Shackles] [be made stronger],
 [Because] [I have heard] [from] [My Master],

[His [Supreme] Majesty].
[A Complete End] [has also been decreed] [over]
[The [entire] Earth]!
 (Isaiah 28:1–22) —my interim translation

The statement in the final verse of that passage should be all that anyone but a fool needs to give them fair warning.
 (“Things Aren’t Always What They Seem,” The Voice of Elijah®, July 2025, pp. 1–3)

In this issue, I want to go back and review a few things I have written over the past several years just to put things into focus for those who have ears to hear the Truth and are actually willing to believe it. Maybe then you will be able to understand how the “winds” have been hard at work over the past two centuries, doing their best to bring down the form of government in the one country on the face of the Earth that still protects the individual’s right to freedom of religion. If you guessed that country might well be the United States of America, you guessed right. But the reason I bring that topic up is because I want to explain how God is preparing things for His Children here at the End of the Age. If you are one of those, you might want to pay attention.

Stupid Is as Stupid as What He Believes

Over the span of six months or so in the summer and fall of 2018, the topic of Communism never left my mind. It was like a constant drumbeat resonating in my head. Consequently, for the January 2019 issue of The Voice of Elijah® newsletter, I wrote an article titled “Wanna Hear ANOTHER Whopper the Liar Came Up With? (I’m Certain You Won’t Believe It!)” In that article, I gave you an account of the ideologies that stand behind Christianity, Capitalism, and Communism. At the time, I assumed I had laid the topic to rest; but I was wrong. It reared its ugly head again just a few months ago, so I decided to revisit the topic and give you a bit more insight into how the habitually lying Snake Satan has been working to erode the freedom of religion protection that was codified in the Constitution of the United States some 250 years ago.

I will begin by giving you what I wrote nearly six years ago, right after I quoted the absolute “drivel” that Karl Marx published in 1848 in The Communist Manifesto:

Now that you have read that drivel for yourself, let me point out the things it says Communists want to impose on any country where they are able to come to power via one-party rule. They want to:

1. Abolish private property.
2. Abolish all rights to individuality and freedom.
3. Abolish family/make children wards of the state.
4. Allow only public education.
5. Replace marriage with free love.
6. Elevate wage-earners to the ruling class.
7. Impose a heavy income tax.
8. Impose a minimum wage.
9. Abolish all rights of inheritance.
10. Confiscate property of immigrants/dissidents.
11. Control credit via a state bank.
12. Control communication/transportation.
13. Increase factories owned by the state.
14. Make everyone work.
15. Distribute population equally.

The things on that list are all mentioned in the text, so you can be fairly well certain they define Communist ideology. And here is one very veritable verity you can always count on: If it looks like a duck, walks like a duck, and quacks like a duck, it is a duck—even if someone tells you it is something else. So if you see a politician that looks, walks, and talks like a Communist, you have yourself a Communist, even if he calls himself a “socialist.” That is because the “socialist” dogma you hear from some politicians today came directly out of The Communist Manifesto penned by Marx and Engels. Should you doubt that, stay tuned; I am about to tell you how the Communist agenda became the agenda of a political party in a capitalist country. I am certain you will have a hard time believing it, so buckle up and hang on; here goes.

After the October Revolution in 1917 brought the Bolsheviks to power in the new “socialist” state of Russia, Communist party leaders were expected to read, and make decisions based on, the works of Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, and Vladimir Lenin. But after the formation of the Soviet Union in 1922, those works were not only required reading for the rank-and-file members of the Communist Party, the Soviet government made the distribution of the Communist dogma an important policy objective. That is the point at which the indoctrination of the world with regard to the nonsense in The Communist Manifesto got underway.

Communists have always understood the awesome power of disinformation, misinformation, and propaganda—that is, lies. That is because they are well aware of what I have told you repeatedly: People act in accordance with what they believe. So Communists do not tell the Truth, they tell people what they want them to believe, with total disregard for whether or not it is true. On that basis alone you should be able to recognize the work of Satan, the Liar. He is desperate to make sure as many people as possible are aligned with Communist ideology because he plans to use it to attain his real objective—the destruction of this entire civilization.

The public distribution of Communist literature was not the only way Soviet leaders planned to indoctrinate the world with their ideology, not by a long shot. They set out to infiltrate every echelon of society, from top to bottom, in every country around the world so that they could influence the unsuspecting, which is exactly what they have done. Since I cannot prove beyond a shadow of doubt that what I am about to tell you is true, I will just tell you it is what I believe they would have done and let you decide.

First of all, I believe they would have printed several hundred thousand copies of an English translation of The Communist Manifesto and distributed them far and wide, which is exactly what the British and American Communist Parties did in 1932. I also believe they would have made sure the contents of that publication became an integral part of political-science courses in as many universities as possible, which it did.

I believe they would have made sure Communist sympathizers were ensconced in as many positions of power and influence as possible. Not only would they have placed them in government positions, they would also have placed them: (1) in universities where they were protected by a tenure system so that they could indoctrinate as many mentally pliable young people (think: Hitler's youth) as possible without fear of losing their jobs; (2) among the actors and actresses in Hollywood, so they could influence the thinking of the young people who idolize them; (3) in the mainstream news organizations, so they could distribute disinformation, misinformation, and propaganda; (4) in political parties, so they could pass "socialist" legislation.

If you doubt the Communists could have accomplished these things here in the United States, perhaps a brief survey of historical events will refresh your memory, so let me ask you a few questions:

1. Where do you think the hippie movement in the 1960s got the expression "free love"? Could it be they were hearing it kicked around by those who were being fed the Communist propaganda distributed in the universities?

2. Why do you think the stylized image of Che Guevara, the Communist who helped Fidel Castro come to power in Cuba, was the icon of the anti-war movement in the 1960s? Could it be that the anti-war movement was not actually a campaign against the draft but was orchestrated by Communists who sympathized with the Communist regime in North Vietnam? Could it be that Jane Fonda had been ignorantly duped by Communist propaganda taught at Vassar College, where it was fashionable for students to dabble in such things? Likely, since she characterized her opposition to the Vietnam War as "small-c communism." Like a true Communist, she said the Black Panthers were "our revolutionary vanguard ... we must support them with love, money, propaganda, and risk."

3. Why do you think the mainstream media has gradually become more and more a propaganda tool for the liberal "socialist" agenda? Could it be that it has been taken over by people educated at journalism schools where Communist propagandizers are teaching?

4. Why would John Brennan, former Director of the CIA, admit he voted for a Communist candidate in 1976? And why would James Comey, former Director of the FBI, admit he "used to be a Communist"? Could it be they are trying to get ahead of the propaganda curve and tell us, "There's nothing wrong with that"?

Before you reject the above conjectures, consider the fact that Nikita Khrushchev, the Premier of the Soviet Union from 1958 to 1964 may have "let the cat out of the bag" when he said the following:

"You Americans are so gullible. No, you won't accept communism outright, but we'll keep feeding you small doses of socialism until you'll finally wake up and find you already have communism. We won't have to fight you. We'll so weaken your economy until you'll fall like overripe fruit into our hands."

"We cannot expect the Americans to jump from capitalism to communism, but we can assist their elected leaders in giving Americans small doses of socialism, until they suddenly awake to find they have communism."

"We do not have to invade the United States, we will destroy you from within."

"Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. We will bury you!"

"I once said, 'We will bury you,' and I got in trouble with it. Of course we will not bury you with a shovel. Your own working-class will bury you."

Some of those quotes have been consistently debunked over the years, and it is true the first two cannot be verified. But one has to wonder, considering the fact that Khrushchev was known for being "loose-lipped," why would anyone but a Communist deny he said it? The Soviet dissident, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, told us what was going on when he said the following to an audience at Hillsdale College on June 30, 1975:

"Through the decades of the 1920s, the 1930s, the 1940s, the 1950s, the whole Soviet press wrote: 'Western capitalism, your end is near.' But it was as if the capitalist had not heard, could not understand, could not believe this. Nikita Khrushchev came here and said, 'We will bury you!' They didn't believe that, either. They took it as a joke. Now, of course, they have become more clever in our country. Now they don't say 'we are going to bury you' anymore, now they say 'detente.' Nothing has changed in Communist ideology. The goals are the same as they were, but instead of the artless Khrushchev, who couldn't hold his tongue, now they say 'detente.' ... What sort of detente is it when they employ the sort of inhumane propaganda which is proudly called in the Soviet Union 'ideological warfare.'"

So the Communists were conducting ideological warfare here in the United States in 1975. That is, they were seeking to change the thinking of young people. And they have succeeded in duping the unsuspecting majority through misinformation, disinformation, and propaganda. As Khrushchev said:

"The press is our chief ideological weapon."

"The John Birch Society is Communism's greatest ally. With its help we will divide and confuse the American people until they have lost faith in their Government, their nation has ceased to be a major power, and their country is ripe for revolution."

In case you are not familiar with the John Birch Society, let me explain why that last quote is significant. The John Birch Society is an anti-communist advocacy group. Its vitriol against Communists during the 1950s and 1960s continued the crusade of a man named Joseph McCarthy, a man who has become immortalized in the term McCarthyism. You need to know the Truth regarding the allegations made by that ridiculous little man, and the Venona Files reveal it, so let me tell you what they say.

The Venona Project

In 1943, Carter Clarke, an officer in the War Department's Military Intelligence Division, began a project, code-named "Venona," with the purpose of reading all diplomatic communications between the United States and the Soviet Union. He did so because he suspected Joseph Stalin was about to sign an agreement with Hitler and pull out of his alliance with the United States. What Clarke discovered was something else entirely.

The Venona Project would eventually reveal that Julius and Ethel Rosenberg had committed treason by giving the Soviet Union secrets related to the Manhattan Project and the development of the atomic bomb. But it revealed much more than that. It was already an established fact that there were Communist cells in academia and Hollywood; but after cracking the Soviet code, the Venona Project discovered that nearly 350 Communist spies had penetrated the highest levels of the United States government. The Soviet espionage campaign had been so effective, in fact, that some of the spies were advisors to President Franklin Roosevelt. That is most likely the reason why President Roosevelt was never briefed on the findings of the project.

Clarke insisted that only FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and a few others in the Roosevelt Administration had a "need to know" who the spies were. When General Bradley and Admiral Stone insisted on telling the CIA, Clarke told them flat-out: It wasn't going to happen. That was most likely because he already knew fifteen to twenty Soviet spies were working at the OSS before it became the CIA.

After Roosevelt's death in April 1945, Harry Truman was made privy to the communications the Venona Project had intercepted and was given regular briefings. As any good poker player knows, that is an obvious "tell." Clarke must have, with good reason, believed Roosevelt could not be trusted. It is a well-known fact that Roosevelt was, during World War II, much more friendly with Joseph Stalin than with Winston Churchill, much to the dismay of Churchill. So one would have good reason to wonder why one of his first acts as President was to grant the Communist government of the Soviet Union not only diplomatic recognition, but also financial assistance.

When you look at Roosevelt's legislative record, however, it is fairly obvious why Clarke would doubt Roosevelt's ideology. During his first term in office, Roosevelt signed into law a plethora of laws that read like the items on the Communist wish-list—items found in The Communist Manifesto. The National Industrial Recovery Act stipulated a minimum wage for industry and encouraged the formation of unions; the Federal Communications Commission established government authority over telecommunications; the National Labor Relations Act gave greater power to unions. But one should not overlook the most "socialistic" of all the "socialist" laws Roosevelt signed—the Social Security Act.

After the Supreme Court stepped in and declared unconstitutional several pieces of legislation that Roosevelt had signed during his first term, he proposed the Judicial Procedures Reform Bill of 1937, which would have given him the power to "pack the Court" by increasing the number of Supreme Court justices. That move was too "socialistic" for even his own party; and his own Vice President led the opposition against him. But if you heard some of the "socialists" in our own era advocating the same thing—and they did—after the Supreme Court turned conservative in 2018 (for the first time since 1937), you may not have taken that for what it is: another "tell." Those who advocate "packing the Court" (or replacing the Electoral College with the popular vote, or not giving every state two Senators) are not "socialists" interested in social programs, they are Communists yearning for one-party rule.

The Communists have known for a very long time that the only way to get around the safeguards built into the Constitution of the United States and implement one-party rule is via the Federal Judiciary. They were aware of that when Franklin Roosevelt's Communist advisors advised him to "pack the Court" in 1937, and they are even more aware of it now that Conservatives have a majority on the Supreme Court for the first time since that time. (Now you know why "socialists" howled so loudly when that happened; they know they lost ground in what they have been steadily working to achieve over the past eighty years.)

The Achilles heel of the Constitution is the Federal Judiciary, as Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States, knew all too well:

"The original error [was in] establishing a judiciary independent of the nation, and which, from the citadel of the law, can turn its guns on those they were meant to defend, and control and fashion their proceedings to its own will."
(Letter to John Wayles Eppes, 1807)

"You seem ... to consider the judges as the ultimate arbiters of all constitutional questions; a very dangerous doctrine indeed, and one which would place us under the despotism of an oligarchy. Our judges are as honest as other men, and not more so ... and their power [is] the more dangerous, as they are in office for life and not responsible, as the other functionaries are, to the elective control. The Constitution has erected no such single tribunal, knowing that to whatever hands confided, with corruptions of time and party, its members would become despots."
(Letter to William Jarvis, Sept. 28, 1820)

"The germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the federal Judiciary; an irresponsible body (for impeachment is scarcely a scare-crow) working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped."
(Letter to Charles Hammond, August 18, 1821)

"At the establishment of our constitutions, the judiciary bodies were supposed to be the most helpless and harmless members of the government. Experience, however, soon showed in what way they were to become the most dangerous; that the insufficiency of the means provided for their removal gave them a freehold and irresponsibility in office; that their decisions, seeming to concern individual suitors only, pass silent and unheeded by the public at large; that these decisions, nevertheless, become law by precedent, sapping, by little and little, the foundations of the constitution, and working its change by construction, before any one has perceived that that invisible and helpless worm has been busily employed in consuming its substance. In truth, man is not made to be trusted for life if secured against all liability to account.”

(Letter to A. Coray, October 31, 1823)

Now that you know President Franklin Roosevelt went whole-heartedly for “socialism” and attempted to implement one-party rule by “packing the Court,” you should also be able to understand why Satan made sure Joseph McCarthy made such a fool of himself that the epithet McCarthyism makes it difficult for anyone to make a charge of Communism against anyone. You see, McCarthy claimed the State Department was full of Communist spies and sympathizers; but that was a charge he could never substantiate. Although the Venona Project did not validate his claim against the people he accused, it certainly did reveal that his claims were far from unfounded.

One of the men who had been accused of being a Soviet sympathizer in 1939 and again in 1948—long before McCarthy began his anti-Communist tirade—was Alger Hiss. The Venona files prove Hiss had been working for the Soviets since 1935, a date that becomes significant only when you know when and how Hiss served in the Roosevelt Administration.

Hiss joined the Administration as an attorney in the Justice Department soon after Roosevelt took office in 1933. He then moved over to a Senate committee and spent the better part of the next two years in court defending the legitimacy of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, which was trying to raise the price of commodities by paying farmers to cut the size of their herds and leave land uncultivated. It was during this time that Hiss became acquainted with radicals on the Agriculture Department’s legal team and was, most likely, recruited by someone who was a Communist sympathizer. At any rate, the Venona files indicate Hiss began working with the Soviets in 1935, which means he was already a spy when he moved to the State Department in 1936.

Hiss was still working for the State Department when World War II ended in 1945. He was also a member of the delegation that attended the Yalta Conference, where Franklin Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin agreed to make no separate peace agreements with the Nazi regime. It was at this conference that Roosevelt supposedly snubbed Churchill, preferring instead to spend time with Stalin, the Communist he called “Uncle Joe.” Critics claimed Hiss gave too many concessions to the Soviets in the “Declaration of Liberated Europe” that he helped to draft at the conference, so one can only wonder how much influence he had on Roosevelt over the preceding twelve years.

[“Wanna Hear ANOTHER Whopper the Liar Came Up With? (I’m Certain You Won’t Believe It!)” The Voice of Elijah®, January 2019, pp. 23–27]

So What’s the Point?

Now that the current administration has declassified rock-solid evidence that former President Barack Obama, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, former CIA Director John Brennan, former FBI Director James Comey, and former DNI Director James Clapper colluded in a plot that was essentially a “coup” against the incoming Trump administration in 2016, I am going to explain why you may want to take what I wrote in 2019 as a bit of insight into what God has planned for this country going forward. It doesn’t matter to me one way or another what you choose to believe. But it does matter to me whether I fulfill my calling by warning you about what is headed our way. So I am going to tell you what I believe and why I believe it.

In July 2018—which was a full two years after then CIA Director John Brennan briefed then President Barack Obama as to the fact that Hillary Clinton was going to use a fake dossier to smear Donald Trump in her campaign for President—I began to experience an incessant mental compulsion to research, and ultimately distribute, information regarding what Communists have been doing in the United States. The article I wrote for the January 2019 issue of The Voice of Elijah® newsletter was the result of what I came to understand.

What caught my attention in my quest for the Truth was the fact that two of the perpetrators—of what I could easily see at the time was a hoax—readily admitted they had at one time identified as Communists. But after hearing Hillary Clinton and various other people begin to advocate for “packing the court” and doing away with the Electoral College, I realized what Communists had stated in the past was actually true. They fully intended to take down the Constitutional form of government we have here in the United States and replace it with a one-party system in which our Constitutional freedoms would be taken away and replaced by a Supreme Court issuing decrees created by fiat. In other words, they were working to bring about a time when the United States would be effectively governed by a nine-member panel of Communist Supreme Court justices who could not only override any legislation the President and members of Congress passed, they could also interpret the Constitution to mean anything they wanted it to mean.

When I was able to see what the Communists were trying to do, I assumed it was just a matter of time before they achieved their objectives and made every True Believer here in the United States a target to be eliminated, just as the Uyghurs are targeted in Communist China and the stateless Rohingya Muslims are targeted in Myanmar next door. But my beliefs in that regard changed dramatically when the intelligence community in the current administration exposed the Communist conspiracy of the movers and shakers in the Obama administration. While current leaders do not attribute that corruption to the fact that the perpetrators are Communists, I can clearly see that reality for what it really is; therefore, I am going to explain where all this is headed. But first, let me tell you what I see:

1. The deeply classified (hidden in a safe within a safe) CIA documents exposed the perpetrators of the attempted "coup" as Communists who had just seen the presidential election in 2016 thwart their plans to finally gain control of the Supreme Court.

2. Reliably "liberal" justices on the Supreme Court have been replaced by conservative justices who will judge on the basis of the Constitution and legislation passed by Congress rather than passing "socialist" legislation by "ruling from the bench."

3. Actions taken by the current administration to pare down the number of government employees are aimed at purging Communist bureaucrats who have been engaged in subversive activity for years.

4. Governmental lawsuits against elite universities are intended to diminish the ability of Communist professors in those institutions to indoctrinate students by teaching required courses.

5. The push to abolish the Department of Education is intended to reduce the influence that the Communist leaders of teachers' unions have over those who teach elementary school children.

Where Are We Headed?

The current circumstances in this country have been brought about by the "winds" doing their best to use ignorant Communist believers to bring down the "edifice" the Living God is currently in the process of "building." To understand what I mean by that, you first have to understand what John the Revelator says in the following passage:

¹(1) Then a tremendous sign was seen in Heaven:

- (a) {there is} a woman who had been wrapped in the sun and
- (b) the moon {is} underneath her feet and
- (c) a crown of twelve stars {is} on her head, ²and
- (d) {she is} one who has a baby in her tummy; and
- (e) she is shouting while in labor and in torment to give birth.

³(2) Then another sign was seen in Heaven, and guess what!

- (a) It was a large, fiery red sea serpent that has
 - (i) seven heads and
 - (ii) ten horns and
 - (iii) seven diadems on his heads. ⁴And

- (b) his tail hauled in the third {part} of the stars of Heaven, and
- (c) he threw them down to the Earth.
- (d) And the sea serpent was standing before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he could devour her child.

⁵(3) Then {the woman} gave birth to a Son, a Male Who is going to shepherd all the Gentiles with an iron staff; and

- (a) her Child was snatched up
 - (i) to the {living} God and
 - (ii) to His throne. ⁶And

- (b) the woman fled into the desert where she has a place that has been prepared there by the {living} God, so that He may provide her food there one thousand two hundred sixty days.

⁷(4) Then there was war in Heaven—Michael and his messengers waging war with the sea serpent. And

(a) the sea serpent and his messengers waged war, ⁸and

- (i) they did not have the ability {to win};
- (ii) neither was a place found for them in Heaven any longer.

⁹(b) So the sea serpent—

- (i) the great one,
- (ii) the snake,
- (iii) the ancient one,
- (iv) the one that is called

- (a) “False Accuser” and
- (b) “Satan,”

(v) the one who is going to lead the entire civilized world astray—was thrown down.

- (c) He was thrown down to the Earth, and
- (d) his messengers were thrown down with him.

¹⁰(5) Then I heard a loud voice in Heaven, saying: “At this time,

- (a) the salvation and
- (b) the supernatural power and
- (c) the kingdom of our God—and
- (d) the authority of His Anointed One—have come, because the accuser of our brothers—the one who makes accusations against them day and night before our God—has been thrown down. ¹¹And they have triumphed over him

- (i) because of the blood of the Little Lamb and
- (ii) because of the word of their testimony, and
- (iii) {because} they did not love their soul up to the time of death.

¹²(e) For this reason the heavens and you who are camping out in them must celebrate.

(f) Woe to the Earth and the sea because the false accuser—who has tremendous rage, aware that he has just a little time—has come down to you.”

¹³(6) Then when the sea serpent saw that he had been thrown down to the Earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the Male.

¹⁴(a) So the two wings of the vulture—the great one—were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the desert, to her place, where she is going to be provided food there for a time and times and half a time, away from the snake’s presence.

¹⁵(b) So the snake cast water out of his mouth like a river behind the woman, so that he might cause her to be carried away by the river.

¹⁶(c) So the Earth helped the woman, and the Earth opened her mouth and swallowed up the river that the sea serpent cast out of his mouth.

¹⁷(d) So the sea serpent became angry with the woman and went away to make war with the rest of her seed—those who

(i) keep the commandments of the {living} God and

(ii) hold on to the testimony of Jesus—and he stood on the sand of the sea.

(Revelation 12:1–17) —HSSB

At this point, I am going to give you a diatribe against Satan, the “serpent” who is such a complete idiot that he somehow came to the conclusion he could overthrow the Creator of everything that exists. I will begin by explaining the meaning of the parabolic imagery in the chapter you just read:

1. “The Woman” John introduces in the first verse of the chapter are “The Many” who are parabolically Corporate Israel—that is, the Ekklesia (think: Assembly) that is made up of the members of the Body of Jesus Christ who have not yet been “cut off from” the Ekklesia of Corporate Israel.

2. The “large, fiery red sea serpent” John introduces in verse 3 is quite obviously Satan, and he confirms that fact in verse 9. But if you want to understand the Book of Revelation, you must keep in mind how John describes that idiot: He has seven heads, ten horns, and seven diadems. That bit of information is necessary to your accurate understanding of what John says a little later on in his treatise, so keep it in mind.

3. The male child introduced in verse 5 is clearly Jesus Christ, the One Who is Corporate Israel—"The One" Who is parabolically comprised of "The Many" members who are "The Woman."

4. The parabolic "water" that comes out of Satan's mouth "like a river" in verse 15 depicts all the lies and propaganda mentioned in verse 9 that Satan has successfully disseminated "to lead the entire civilized world astray."

5. The only place on the face of the Earth where "The Woman" will be provided the "food" of the Truth (v. 14) and be somewhat protected from Satan—the snake who has seven heads, ten horns, and seven diadems—is none other than the one country in which the deceit and lies of the propagandists of the Communist religious cult are being exposed for what they are. That country is the United States, and the freedom of religion enshrined in the Constitution of the United States is—just as God intended—going to thwart Satan's futile attempt to shut down the restoration of the Truth that the Church lost.

The parabolic "food" mentioned in verse 14 is the "something to eat" that Jesus talks about in this passage:

³⁵*"Heaven and Earth will pass away, but My words will definitely not pass away.*

³⁶*But nobody is aware of {anything} with regard to that day and hour—neither the messengers of the heavens nor the Son—except the Father alone. ³⁷For indeed, just as the days of Noah, the coming of the Son of The Man will be like this. ³⁸For like they were in those days that were before the flood—chowing down and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to {the} day when Noah came into the box; ³⁹and they did not find out until the flood came and took everyone away—the coming of the Son of The Man will also be like that.*

wall of his house to be dug through. ⁴⁴For this reason you must also be ready, because the Son of The Man is going to come back at an hour that you do not assume {He will}.

⁴⁵*So then who is the trustworthy and sensible slave whom the master appointed over his household slaves to give them something to eat on time? ⁴⁶That slave whom his master finds so doing when {he} comes back is fortunate. ⁴⁷Without doubt, I tell you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. ⁴⁸But if that awful slave says in his heart, 'My master is taking his time,' ⁴⁹and begins to hit his fellow slaves and then eat and drink with those who are intoxicated, ⁵⁰the master of that slave will come on a day on which he is not expecting {him} and at an hour that he does not know, ⁵¹and he will cut him in two, and he will put his part down with the hypocrites. The weeping and the gritting of the teeth will be there."*
(Matthew 24:35–51) —HSSB

The Truth is, the biblical Book of Revelation is an account of what God is currently in the process of doing to usher in the seventh "day" of Creation by once and for all wiping out the nonsensical belief that He is Someone other than the angry, jealous God that Moses describes in the Pentateuch. The Jews have so completely bought into Satan's lie in that regard that they cannot see the Hebrew Scriptures plainly state their ancestors made the third Old Covenant totally null and void by "turning away from" the Truth every time a Prophet restored it. Therefore, God called John the Baptist to offer the first New Covenant to the individual members of Corporate Israel before "cutting off" everyone but Jesus Christ "from" that Corporate Body when Jesus accepted the terms of that Covenant.

Unfortunately, all too soon after the Apostles established the Church under the terms of the third New Covenant, the leaders of the Church did exactly the same thing the ancestors of the Jews had done so many times before: They "turned away from" the Truth. Should you doubt that, you may want to consider the fact that I am not the first to make the claim that leaders of the Early Church lost the Truth; the leaders of the Protestant Reformation did that for me more than five hundred years ago, as anyone with even a smattering of knowledge regarding their claims should know full well. I'm just repeating their accurate assertions.

The Final Days of the End of the Age are rapidly winding down, so God called me to explain things that only those who still have a wee bit of desire to know the Truth will ever accept as true. Everyone else will hide themselves in the extremely believable lie that Satan is preparing, just as Isaiah tells us in Isaiah 28 and the Apostle Paul confirms in 2 Thessalonians 2.

So let me lay it out for you: There is no greater lie than the monstrosity that all lamebrained Communist-indoctrinated members of The Harlot living on Planet Earth delusionally want to believe. That lie vehemently states, “there is no God.” Yet no matter how many fools ignorantly want to believe that, the Truth regarding their current situation is just as John describes it in Revelation 18:

¹(1) After these things, I saw another messenger—one who has tremendous authority—coming down out of Heaven; and the Earth was provided light by his glory.
²*And he shouted in a mighty voice, saying:*

(a) “She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen!
 (b) She has also become

(i) a home of demons and
 (ii) a guard house of every unclean spirit and
 (iii) a guard house of every unclean bird and
 (iv) a guard house of every unclean and hated beast; ³because

(a) all the Gentiles have drunk some of the wine of the rage of her sexual promiscuity, and
 (b) the kings of the Earth have been sexually promiscuous with her, and
 (c) the merchants of the Earth have become wealthy from the supernatural power of her sensuality.”

⁴(2) Then I heard another voice out of Heaven saying: “Come out of her, My people,

(a) so that you do not have commonality with her in her sins—and
 (b) so that you do not receive any of her lashes;
⁵*because*

(i) her sins have joined {themselves} together as far as Heaven, and
 (ii) the {living} God has remembered her immoral acts.

⁶(a) Pay her back even as much as she paid {you}, and
 (b) double the {ingredients} twice as much in accordance with her works; in the cup that she mixed,
 (c) mix twice as much for her. ⁷As much as she glorified herself and lived sensually,
 (d) give her so much torment and mourning; because she says in her heart that ‘I AM SITTING AS A QUEEN!’ AND ‘I AM NOT A WIDOW!’ and ‘I WILL DEFINITELY NOT SEE MOURNING.’ ⁸For this reason

(iii) her lashes will come in one day—

(a) death and
 (b) mourning and
 (c) famine—and

(iv) she will be burned up in a fire, because

(a) His Majesty,
 (b) the {living} God—
 (c) the One Who has judged her—{is} mighty.

⁹(v) Then the kings of the Earth, those who

(a) were sexually promiscuous and
 (b) lived sensually with her, will weep and cut themselves because of her, when they see the smoke of her burning,

¹⁰(i) standing at a distance away from {her} because of their fear of her torment,
 (ii) saying: ‘Woe, woe to the city—the great one—Babylon, the city that is mighty—because your sentence has come in one hour!’”

(Revelation 18:1–10) —HSSB

To get back to the basic theological tenet held by the ridiculous religious rooters of the completely crazy Communist cult—that is, the boneheaded belief that “since there is no God, I can lie, steal, cheat, and kill without fear of recompense”—I want to show you what the Prophet Isaiah says about The Harlot that John the Revelator describes in Revelation 18:

¹"[Go down] [and sit down] [on] [{the} Dirt],
[Virgin] [Daughter] [of Babylon];
[Sit down] [on {the} Earth] [without any] [Throne],
[Daughter] [of Chaldeans],
[Because] [You will [not] continue to]
[have them call] [You]
[Tender] [and delightful].
²[Take] [a Pair of Millstones] [and grind up] [Flour].
[Uncover] [Your Veil], [strip off] [{Your} Skirt],
[Uncover] [{Your} Thigh], [pass through] [{the} Rivers].
³[Your Private Parts] [will be uncovered];
[Your Disgrace] [will [also] be seen];
[I will take] [Vengeance], [but I will [not] confront]
[{the} Descendants of Adam]."
⁴[His [Supreme] Majesty] [is going to redeem us];
[His Name] {is} [Israel's] [Holy One].)
⁵"[Sit down] [in silence] [and go in] [to Darkness],
[Daughter] [of Chaldeans],
[Because] [You will [not] continue to] [have them call] [You]
[Mistress of] [Kingdoms].'
⁶[I was filled with wrath] [against] [My People];
[I polluted] [My Inheritance],
[And I gave them] [into Your Hand].
[You did [not] afford] [them] [Compassion];
[You made [Your Yoke] [very] heavy] [on] [an Old Person].
⁷[And You said], '[I will be] [Mistress]
[for a Burning Eternity].'
[As long as] [You did [not] take] [These Things]
[to] [Your Heart],
[You did [not] remember] [its Outcome].
⁸[So now], [listen to] [this], [dainty {one}]—
[The one who is dwelling] [securely],
[The one who is saying] [in her Heart]:
'[I {am}], [and there is not] [anyone else].
[I will [not] sit] {as} [a Widow],
[And I will [not] know] [Bereavement].'
⁹[Yet [These [two] Things] will come] [to You]
[in a Moment]:
[In [one] Day], [Bereavement] [and Widowhood]
[Will come] [on You] [to their fullest {extent}]—
[Via {the} Large Amount] [of Your Sorceries],
[Via {the} Potency] [of Your [many] Spells].
¹⁰[You trusted] [in Your Badness];
[You said], '[There is nobody] [who sees me].'
[Your Wisdom] [and Your Knowledge]?
[It] [has turned You back],
[So that You say] [in Your Heart],
'[I {am}], [and there is not] [anyone else].'

¹¹[So [a Bad Thing] will come] [upon You];
[You will [not] know] [its Dawning];
[A Disaster] [will fall] [on You];
[You will [not] be able] [to cover it up];
[A Devastating Storm] [You do [not] know]
[Will [suddenly] come] [upon You].
¹²[Please] [stand] [via Your Spells]
[And via {the} Large Amount] [of Your Sorceries]
[For which] [You have gotten tired] [since Your Youth];
[Perhaps] [You will be able] [to benefit],
[Perhaps] [You will terrify].
¹³[You have a hard time] [with {the} Large Number]
[of Your Plans].
[Please] [let these stand up] [and save You]
[From what] [is coming] [upon You]:
[Those who segment] [The Sea of Waters],
[Those who gaze] [at {the} Stars],
[Those who make known] [by {the} New Moons].
¹⁴[Guess what!] [They are] [like Stubble];
[A Fire] [will burn them up];
[They will [not] snatch [their Soul] out]
[Of {the} Hand] [of The Flame];
[There will not be] [a Burning Coal] [to warm them],
[A Light] [to sit] [right in front of]!
¹⁵[Those who have traded with You] [since Your Youth],
[Those whom] [You have gotten tired of],
[have become] [like this] [to You];
[Each One] [has wandered off] [to his own Area Beyond].
[There is not any] [one who is going to gain salvation for You]."
(Isaiah 47:1–15) —my interim translation

Isaiah is talking about the religious brainlessness that mankind accepted as true at the Tower of Babel. That is, he is ridiculing "the great city" "Babylon" that Moses describes in the following passage:

¹[Now [The [whole] Earth] was] [one] [Language]
[and [one] Vocabulary]. ²[And so it was], [while they were making a trek] [to The East], [that they found] [a Broad Valley] [in {the} Land] [of Shinar] [and dwelled] [there].
³[Then [Each One] said] [to] [his Neighbor]: "[Come on!]
[Let's make] [Bricks] [and burn {them} thoroughly] [by burning]." [So [they] had] [The Brick] [for Stone], [and [they] [had] The Tar] [for Clay].
⁴[Then they said]: "[Come on!] [Let's build] [a
City] [and a Tower] [for ourselves!] [Its Top] {will be} [in {the} Sea of Waters]! [And let's make] [a Name] [for ourselves], [lest] [we be dispersed] [over] [{the} Surface of] [The [whole] Earth].” ⁵[Then [His Majesty] came down] [to look at] [The City] [and] [The Tower] [that] [{the} Sons of] [The {first} Adam] [had built].

⁶[And [His Majesty] said]: “[Guess what!] [All of them have] [one] [People] [and [one] Language]. [But [doing] this] [has polluted them], [and now] [nothing] [that] [they intend] [to do] [will be withheld] [from them]. ⁷[Come on!] [Let’s go down] [there] [and mix up] [their Language] [so that] [Each One] [can [not] hear] [{the} Language of] [his Neighbor].”

⁸[So [His Majesty] dispersed] [them] [from there] [over] [{the} Surface of] [The [whole] Earth], [and they stopped] [building] [The City]. ⁹[Therefore], [its Name] [is called] [Babylon] [because] [His Majesty] [mixed up] [{the} Language of] [The [whole] Earth] [there], [and from there] [His Majesty] [dispersed them] [over] [{the} Surface of] [The [whole] Earth].

(Genesis 11:1–9) —my interim translation

Don’t kid yourself; something drastically infernal happened at that Tower, something that God found so completely repugnant and despicable that He set in place conditions that were specifically designed to ensure almost continual war between groups of people who did not have the same language or live in the same locale. So pay attention! The text plainly says God did that to prevent mankind from accomplishing everything they might set out to accomplish. Those “shackles” are still firmly in place. But before I get into talking about how God intends to use war here at the End of the Age to prevent this final generation from achieving its ultimate goal of artificial intelligence, let me remind you once again that the Apostle Paul tells us something else God did at the Tower of Babel:

¹³(2) But I do not want you to not understand, brothers, that I have often intended to come to you—and have hitherto been prevented—so that I might also have some fruit among you, just as {I} also {have} among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴I am obligated to both Greeks and foreigners, to both those who are wise and those who are senseless. ¹⁵(3) So, as for me, I am also eager to proclaim the good news of the fulfillment of the promise to you who are in Rome:

¹⁶(a) for I am not ashamed of the good news of the fulfillment of the promise;

(i) for it is God’s supernatural power for salvation in anyone who believes God’s promise—in both Jew, first, and Greek;

¹⁷(ii) for God’s declaration of not guilty is being revealed by it—on the basis of {His} belief in God’s promise resulting in {our} belief in God’s promise—just as it has been written, “AND THEN THE ONE WHO IS BLAMELESS WILL LIVE ON THE BASIS OF BELIEF IN GOD’S PROMISE”;

¹⁸(b) for God’s anger is going to be revealed from Heaven against all {the} depravity and injustice of men who hold the truth fast in injustice, ¹⁹because what is known about the {living} God is well-known within them, for the {living} God has made {it} well-known to them;

²⁰(c) for since {the} creation of the world His invisible {characteristics}—both His everlasting supernatural power and divine nature, which are understood by the things {He} made—have been plainly seen so that they are without excuse;

²¹because,

(i) when {they} knew the {living} God, they did not glorify {Him} as God or give thanks, but became futile in their speculations; and their heart, lacking insight, was darkened.

²²(ii) Alleging that {they} were wise, they became stupid ²³and exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for {the} likeness of an image of a perishable man and of winged creatures and of quadrupeds and of reptiles.

²⁴(1) Wherefore, the {living} God handed them over to uncleanness through the selfish desires of their hearts, so that their bodies would be dishonored by them—²⁵those who:

(a) exchanged the truth of the {living} God for the lie and were in awe of {it} and

(b) served the creation as priest rather than the One Who created {it}, the One Who is going to be blessed for the ages to come. Without doubt!

²⁶(2) For this reason the {living} God handed them over to an urge for dishonor. For their females as well exchanged their natural use for the one that is contrary to nature; ²⁷and then the males, likewise, after letting go of the natural use of the female, were also set afire in their craving for one another—males in males bringing about their unseemly behavior and getting back within themselves the requital that has to do with their deception.

²⁸(3) And just as they did not approve of the {living} God—to hold onto {approval} through full knowledge of the truth—the {living} God handed them over to a rejected mind, to do the things that are not right.
 (Romans 1:13–28) —HSSB

So that's how the civilization on Planet Earth came to be called "Mystery Babylon" in the Book of Revelation. Witless folks in Mesopotamia way back then brought the full fury of the wrath of God down on themselves at the ridiculous Tower they built, just as this generation is doing its best to bring down that same burning fury on their ill-fated attempt at ushering in a Utopia by building a metal monster designed to remove every "shackle" God has placed on us. But that angry, jealous God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob has now brought us right up to the End of the Age with war having killed young soldiers in one generation after another for dozens of centuries. So the time has finally arrived for you to face the music and decide what God you serve.

I have explained what you need to know about the insanity we call "Communism" because the idiotic adherents of that ridiculous religious fandom are not going to back down. It is, after all, the only political system on Earth that has become a fanatical religious cult by insisting on the truthfulness of the one theoretical theological postulate that asserts, without any evidence, that "there is no God"—which is, by the way, the very reason for which, as the Prophet Isaiah tells us, God is going to take down the knuckleheaded stiff who proffer that nonsense. So pay close attention to what I'm telling you and watch; God is in the process of besting the Communists at their own game.

The first thing you need to know is, recent events here in the United States have resulted in the decapitation of a few of the "heads" of that Snake Satan just because they thought they could easily take over the administration of this Constitutional republic and install a de facto Communist government in its place. That attempt failed miserably, and Satan's plans to wipe out the freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States have now been set back twenty to thirty years. Fortunately, that short window is all that God needs to step in and do exactly what He said He would do so very long ago. Therefore, that brief span of time is actually more than is necessary for Him to accomplish what He has planned.

The idiotic Communists who have, for several years now, controlled the CIA, FBI, FCC, and various other governmental agencies were so hubristic as to leave a rock solid paper trail describing their activities; so knowledge of their subversive Communist plans have put the Constitutionlists on high alert. For that reason Satan is going to put into action his "ace in the hole." But that fool will eventually be forced to realize his backup plan has also failed simply because God intervened. This is the plan I am talking about:

¹(1) Then I saw a beast that has

- (a) ten horns and
- (b) seven heads—and
- (c) ten diadems on its horns and
- (d) names of a false religious claim on its heads—coming up out of the sea. ²*And*

(2) the beast that I saw was just like a leopard, and

- (a) its feet {were} like a bear, and
- (b) its mouth {was} like a lion's mouth. And

(3) the sea serpent gave it

- (a) its supernatural power and
- (b) its throne and
- (c) tremendous authority. ³*And*

(4) one of its heads {was} like one who had been slaughtered, resulting in death, yet the lash of its death was cured. And

(5) the entire Earth {following} after the beast

- (a) was amazed, ⁴*and*
- (b) paid homage to the sea serpent because he had given his authority to the beast. And they paid homage to the beast, saying, "Who is just like the beast, and who can wage war with it?"

⁵(6) Then a mouth that speaks

- (a) tremendous things and
- (b) false religious claims was given to it, and it was given an authority to act for forty and two months.

⁶(7) So it opened its mouth to {make} false religious claims against the {living} God, to make false religious claims about His name and His tent—those who are camping out in Heaven.

⁷(8) Then it was given to it

- (a) to make war with the holy ones and
- (b) to triumph over them.

(9) So authority over every

- (a) tribe and
- (b) people and
- (c) tongue and
- (d) nation was given to it.

⁸(10) Then all who are dwelling on the Earth—anyone whose name has not been written since the establishment of the world in the scroll of the life of the Little Lamb Who has been slaughtered—will worship it.

⁹(11) If anyone has an ear, let him hear:

- ¹⁰(a) if anyone {is to go} into a concentration camp, he is going to go into a concentration camp;
- (b) if anyone {is} to be killed with a sword, he {is going} to be killed with a sword. Here is the perseverance and the belief in God's promise that the holy ones have.

¹¹(1) Then I saw another beast coming up out of the Earth; and

- (a) it had two horns, just like a little lamb; and
- (b) it spoke like a sea serpent; ¹²and
- (c) it acts in accordance with all the authority of the first beast before it. And
- (d) it makes {it} so that the Earth and those who dwell in her worship the beast—the first {one}, the one whose lash of death was cured. ¹³And
- (e) it does tremendous signs, so that it even makes fire come down out of Heaven to the Earth in the presence of men. ¹⁴And
- (f) it leads astray those who are dwelling on the Earth because of the signs that it has been given to do in the presence of the beast, telling those who are dwelling on the earth to make an image for the beast who has the lash of the sword yet has lived. ¹⁵And
- (g) it was given {the ability} to give a spirit to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast could even speak and make {it} so that as many as it may be who would not pay homage to the image of the beast would be killed.

¹⁶(2) And it makes {preparation for} everyone—

- (a) the little ones and
- (b) the older {ones}, even
- (c) the wealthy and
- (d) the poor, even
- (e) the free men and
- (f) the slaves—

(i) so that they can give them a mark

- (a) on their hand, their right {one}, or
- (b) on their forehead, ¹⁷and

(ii) so that no one except the one who has the mark—the name of the beast or the number of its name—can

- (a) buy or
- (b) sell.

¹⁸(3) Here is the {necessary} wisdom: The one who has a mind must calculate the number of the beast, for its number is also a man's number—six hundred sixty-six. (Revelation 13:1–18) —HSSB

Summary and Conclusion

Satan has failed miserably in his futile attempt at controlling the entire world by imposing Communism on the United States, which would have allowed him to kill everyone who believes the Truth; but his backup plan of imposing a digital currency will eventually succeed. That plan will require everyone to accept a mark of some sort before they can buy or sell. For that reason the only way anyone will be able to stay alive and hold on to their belief in the Truth right up to the End is by making sure they do not have to buy or sell during the final three and a half years. There, I've said it; I have told you everything you need to know about that. You should be able to see that means you will need a reliable source of food and water, and a place to stay where you do not have to pay anything to retain it. It's your choice; either you believe and prepare, or you don't. ■

The Voice of Elijah® includes this column to show you how some of the underlying parabolic images of the Gospel message of the Old Testament speak to the times in which we find ourselves. There are a variety of weather images to be found in the parables of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Most are associated in some way with the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

For the January 2019 issue of The Voice of Elijah® newsletter, I wrote an article titled “Wanna Hear ANOTHER Whopper the Liar Came Up With? (I’m Certain You Won’t Believe It!)” in which I talked about the three ideologies of Christianity, Capitalism, and Communism. I did that because the topic of Communism had been like an incessant drumbeat in my head over the six or seven months prior to me sitting down to write that article. I had no way of knowing at the time that my insight into the issue of Communistic “evangelism” around the world would become a constant in my mind up to this very day.

In 2021, I read a review of a book written by Jeff Guinn titled The Road to Jonestown: Jim Jones and Peoples Temple. The review was all I needed to know my encounter with it was not just serendipity; it was, in fact, the final piece of the puzzle I had been trying to sort out in my mind after writing the January 2019 article I mentioned above. Based on the things I came to understand from the research I did for that article, I was able to see that James Comey, John Brennan, and most likely James Clapper were all Communists. One of them openly admitted he voted for a Communist in 1976, and another said he “used to be” a Communist. Knowing that Vladimir Lenin once said, “once a Communist, always a Communist,” it did not take much for me to see how all three were somehow working together to gain complete control of the government.

By the time I came across the review of Jeff Guinn’s book in 2021, I was already able to see that Donald Trump’s win in the 2016 presidential election had been absolutely devastating to the Communistic ambitions of Hillary Clinton. I could see from her statement “it takes a village to raise a child,” that she had a Communistic mind-set. That comment is nothing more than an expression of the Communist belief that children belong to the State. So that told me she must have been counting on doing the very thing that Trump was able to do after he was elected—“pack the court.” I could also see that’s why the Democrats were calling for Joe Biden to expand the Supreme Court and gain total control by appointing “socialist” justices who would not be constrained by the Constitution. After all, the Communists have known for a long time that control of the Supreme Court is the only way they will ever gain a one-party government that makes the Constitution irrelevant.

When I read what Jeff Guinn had written about Jim Jones being a Communist from the age of 18, but pretending to be a Pentecostal preacher for a while, it suddenly dawned on me that Communism is not just an ideology, it is also a religion, a religion with just one doctrine: There is no God. That was a completely mind-blowing realization, but suddenly everything made perfect sense. If there is no God, there is no reason to be ethical or moral; just do whatever and say whatever it takes to impose a Communist mind-set on the masses who are intellectually inferior to you.

So when I sat down to write the article titled “Wanna Hear a Whopper You Undoubtedly Won’t Believe?” for the April 2022 issue of The Voice of Elijah® newsletter, I could already see the “deep state” was in control when the FBI immediately made everything related to the Jim Jones massacre a state secret. Why would they do that for any reason other than to control negative publicity regarding Communism? That’s when I saw that communistically minded bureaucrats had infiltrated the government. The joke at the time was, “All Jimmy Carter has to do is manage the schedule for the tennis courts.” Then Ronald Reagan came along, and the mantra was, “We are going to become a service economy.” When that became a reality, I realized someone had to be behind the scenes, pulling the strings to make such things happen. So let me tell you a few things about that.

I assume that most, if not all, who read this newsletter are aware of recent political events in Washington, D.C. whereby the mask has been ripped off of several dozen “deep state” actors who went too far out on a limb because they foolishly got too far out over their skis because they thought their time had arrived. Oops! They failed to take into account the God they stupidly believe does not exist.

The angry, jealous God Who is has a bone to pick with anyone who dares to think He does not exist, but they don't know it; and that is because the idiots on the "right hand" did not tell the idiots on the "left hand" what they were doing, undoubtedly because they did not know. What I have in mind is this: The idiots on the "right hand" have been working the Church to make sure everyone believes the lie that describes the angry, jealous God Who is as a doddering old fool who would never hurt a flea, while the "left hand" has been telling everybody, "There is no God."

Unfortunately, the idiots on the "right hand" did not bother to tell the idiots on the "left hand" that the fictitious ever-loving god of unconditional grace that they have been preaching is just a figment of their own distorted imagination. So the idiots on the "left hand" have ended up being deceived by the incredible stupidity preached by the idiots on the "right hand"—in spite of the fact that those fools would most vociferously deny that fact. Did you follow that? Maybe not. The point is, even though the Communist idiots in this equation desperately want to believe there is no God, everyone instinctively knows the Truth in that regard just because God made sure of it:

¹⁵(3) So, as for me, I am also eager to proclaim the good news of the fulfillment of the promise to you who are in Rome:

¹⁶(a) for I am not ashamed of the good news of the fulfillment of the promise;

(i) for it is God's supernatural power for salvation in anyone who believes God's promise—in both Jew, first, and Greek;

¹⁷(ii) for God's declaration of not guilty is being revealed by it—on the basis of {His} belief in God's promise resulting in {our} belief in God's promise—just as it has been written, "AND THEN THE ONE WHO IS BLAMELESS WILL LIVE ON THE BASIS OF BELIEF IN GOD'S PROMISE";

¹⁸(b) for God's anger is going to be revealed from Heaven against all {the} depravity and injustice of men who hold the truth fast in injustice,

¹⁹*because what is known about the {living} God is well-known within them, for the {living} God has made {it} well-known to them;*

²⁰(c) for since {the} creation of the world His invisible {characteristics}—both His everlasting supernatural power and divine nature, which are understood by the things {He} made—have been plainly seen so that they are without excuse.

(Romans 1:15–20) —HSSB

So now that I have shown you what Paul says about the wrath of the angry, jealous God Who is coming down on idiots of all stripes, let me show you where John the Revelator tells us both "hands" are going to end up on the same side of the equation:

¹(1) After these things, I saw another messenger—one who has tremendous authority—coming down out of Heaven; and the Earth was provided light by his glory.

²*And he shouted in a mighty voice, saying:*

(a) "She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen!

(b) She has also become

(i) a home of demons and

(ii) a guard house of every unclean spirit and

(iii) a guard house of every unclean bird and

(iv) a guard house of every unclean and hated beast; ³because

(a) all the Gentiles have drunk some of the wine of the rage of her sexual promiscuity, and

(b) the kings of the Earth have been sexually promiscuous with her, and

(c) the merchants of the Earth have become wealthy from the supernatural power of her sensuality."

⁴(2) Then I heard another voice out of Heaven saying: "Come out of her, My people,

(a) so that you do not have commonality with her in her sins—and

(b) so that you do not receive any of her lashes;

⁵*because*

(i) her sins have joined {themselves} together as far as Heaven, and

(ii) the {living} God has remembered her immoral acts.

- ⁶(a) Pay her back even as much as she paid {you}, and
- (b) double the {ingredients} twice as much in accordance with her works; in the cup that she mixed,
- (c) mix twice as much for her. ⁷As much as she glorified herself and lived sensually,
- (d) give her so much torment and mourning; because she says in her heart that 'I AM SITTING AS A QUEEN!' AND 'I AM NOT A WIDOW!' and 'I WILL DEFINITELY NOT SEE MOURNING.' ⁸For this reason

(iii) her lashes will come in one day—

- (a) death and
- (b) mourning and
- (c) famine—and

(iv) she will be burned up in a fire, because

- (a) His Majesty,
- (b) the {living} God—
- (c) the One Who has judged her—{is} mighty."

(Revelation 18:1–8) —HSSB

The Harlot John describes in that passage is Planet Earth. You can read more about what that "woman" can expect over the next several years if you care to; John laid it all out for you, beginning in Revelation 12, where he begins by telling us about another "Woman":

¹(1) Then a tremendous sign was seen in Heaven:

- (a) {there is} a woman who had been wrapped in the sun and
- (b) the moon {is} underneath her feet and
- (c) a crown of twelve stars {is} on her head, ²and
- (d) {she is} one who has a baby in her tummy; and
- (e) she is shouting while in labor and in torment to give birth.

³(2) Then another sign was seen in Heaven, and guess what!

(a) It was a large, fiery red sea serpent that has

- (i) seven heads and
- (ii) ten horns and
- (iii) seven diadems on his heads. ⁴And

- (b) his tail hauled in the third {part} of the stars of Heaven, and
- (c) he threw them down to the Earth.
- (d) And the sea serpent was standing before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he could devour her child.

⁵(3) Then {the woman} gave birth to a Son, a Male Who is going to shepherd all the Gentiles with an iron staff; and

(a) her Child was snatched up

- (i) to the {living} God and
- (ii) to His throne. ⁶And

(b) the woman fled into the desert where she has a place that has been prepared there by the {living} God, so that He may provide her food there one thousand two hundred sixty days.

(Revelation 12:1–6) —HSSB

"The Woman" in that parabolic description of historical events is Corporate Israel. Corporate Israel "gave birth" to Jesus Christ; and since His Ascension, that Corporate Body has made Her trek through the "desert" of the "wilderness" of the civilization on Planet Earth and ended up here, in the United States of America, "so that He may provide her food there one thousand two hundred sixty days." I wonder how that statement relates to what Jesus says about the fellow who prepares that "food":

²⁵"Guess what! I have told you beforehand!

²⁶Therefore, if they tell you: 'Guess what! He is in the desert,' do not go out {there}. 'Guess what! He is in the storerooms,' do not believe {it}. ²⁷For indeed, just as the flash of light comes out at sunrise and is seen until sunset, the coming of the Son of The Man will be like this. ²⁸Wherever it may be that the corpse is, the vultures will be gathered there.

²⁹But then after the turmoil of those days, THE SUN WILL STRAIGHT OFF BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL

NOT GIVE {you} HER GLEAM, AND THE STARS WILL FALL out of the heavens, and the supernatural powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰And at that time, the sign of the Son of The Man will appear in Heaven, and then all the tribes of the Earth will cut themselves, and they will see THE SON OF THE MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN with supernatural power and a lot of glory. ³¹And He will send His messengers with A LOUD TRUMPET, and THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER His chosen ones out of the four winds—from {the} tips of {the} heavens up to their tips.

³²So learn the comparison from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and is putting on new leaves, you know that summer {is} near. ³³So also you, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at {the} door. ³⁴Without doubt, I tell you that this generation will definitely not pass away until the time comes when all these things occur. ³⁵Heaven and Earth will pass away, but My words will definitely not pass away.

³⁶But nobody is aware of {anything} with regard to that day and hour—neither the messengers of the heavens nor the Son—except the Father alone. ³⁷For indeed, just as the days of Noah, the coming of the Son of The Man will be like this. ³⁸For like they were in those days that were before the flood—chowing down and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to {the} day when Noah came into the box; ³⁹and they did not find out until the flood came and took everyone away—the coming of the Son of The Man will also be like that.

⁴⁵So then who is the trustworthy and sensible slave whom the master appointed over his household slaves to give them something to eat on time? ⁴⁶That slave whom his master finds so doing when {he} comes back is fortunate. ⁴⁷Without doubt, I tell you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. ⁴⁸But if that awful slave says in his heart, ‘My master is taking his time,’ ⁴⁹and begins to hit his fellow slaves and then eat and drink with those who are intoxicated, ⁵⁰the master of that slave will come on a day on which he is not expecting {him} and at an hour that he does not know, ⁵¹and he will cut him in two, and he will put his part down with the hypocrites. The weeping and the gritting of the teeth will be there.”

(Matthew 24:25–51) —HSSB

So now that you know Jesus said there would be a person who would provide “something to eat” for God’s “household” at the End of the Age, I want to explain a bit about the place in the “desert” where John said God would provide “food” for those folks during the final three-and-a-half years of this Age. That is undoubtedly the span of time he mentions in this passage:

¹(1) Then I saw a beast that has

- (a) ten horns and
- (b) seven heads—and
- (c) ten diadems on its horns and
- (d) names of a false religious claim on its heads—coming up out of the sea. ²And

(2) the beast that I saw was just like a leopard, and

- (a) its feet {were} like a bear, and
- (b) its mouth {was} like a lion’s mouth. And

(3) the sea serpent gave it

- (a) its supernatural power and
- (b) its throne and
- (c) tremendous authority. ³And

(4) one of its heads {was} like one who had been slaughtered, resulting in death, yet the lash of its death was cured. And

(5) the entire Earth {following} after the beast

- (a) was amazed, ⁴and
- (b) paid homage to the sea serpent because he had given his authority to the beast. And they paid homage to the beast, saying, “Who is just like the beast, and who can wage war with it?”

⁵(6) Then a mouth that speaks

(a) tremendous things and
 (b) false religious claims was given to it, and it was given an authority to act for forty and two months.
 (Revelation 13:1–5) —HSSB

Do you think that maybe—just maybe—the Prophet Daniel was describing circumstances that would exist during that span of time when he said the following?

¹“[At [that] Time], [Michael], [The [great] Commanding Officer] [who stands] [over] [{the} Sons of] [Your People], [will stand up]; [and there will be] [a Time] [of Distress] [that] [has [not] been] [since there was] [a Nation] [until] [that] [Time]. [And at [that] Time], [Your People]—[everyone] [who is found] [written] [in {the} Scroll]—[will escape]. ²[Then many] [of those who are sleeping] [{in the} [dusty] Ground] [will wake up]. [These]? [To an [eternally burning] Life]! [But these]? [To {the} Disgrace] [of an [eternally burning] Repulsion]. ³[And those who have insight] [will—[like {the} Brightness] [of The Expanse]—enlighten {others}], [and those who declare [The Many] not guilty]—[like {the} Stars]—[for a Burning Eternity] [and Forever]. ⁴[But You], [Daniel], [must plug up] [The Words] [and seal up] [The Scroll] [until] [an [End] Time]. [Many] [will go out looking {for the Truth}], [so [The Knowledge {of the Truth}] will increase].”

⁵[Then [I], [Daniel], looked]; [and guess what!] [Two] [others] [were standing]: [One] [here] [on {this} Bank] [of The Nile], [and another] [there], [on {that} Bank] [of The Nile].

⁶[And He said] [to {the} Man] [clothed with] [The Linen] ([who] {was} [above] [{the} Waters of] [The Nile]), “[How [long] until] [{the} End] [of The Incomprehensible Things]?”

⁸[Now I] [had heard], [but I could [not] understand]. [So I said], “[My Master]! [What {will be}] [{the} Outcome of] [These Things]?”

⁹[But he said]: “[Go on], [Daniel]! [Because] [The Words] [have been plugged up] [and sealed up] [until] [an [End] Time]. ¹⁰[Many] [will be purified] [and made white] [and refined]. [They will declare [Those Who Are Guilty], guilty]; [and [all] [Who Are Guilty] will [not] understand]. [But Those Who Gain Insight] [will understand]. ¹¹[And from {the} Time] [The Continuous Ritual] [has been removed] [even to {the time of} letting] [a Detestable Thing] [devastate {the Earth}]] {there will be} [a Thousand] [{two} Hundred] [and ninety] [Days]. ¹²[The One Who Attains the Resurrection] {will be} [the one who waits for], [and reaches], [a Thousand] [three] [Hundred] [thirty] [and five] [Days]! ¹³[But You] [must go on] [to {the} End] [and rest]; [then You will stand up] [{at} The Right Hand {of God}] [for Your Allotment] [at {the} End].”
 (Daniel 12:1–13) —my interim translation

I showed you those passages to let you know that you are witnessing, in real time, God working to fulfill His promise to Adam and Eve—provided you have been able to see the Truth in the things I have explained about the following passages over the past thirty-five years:

Genesis 1:26–27

The Two Adams
 The Seventh “Day” of Creation

Exodus 20–Deuteronomy 34

The Three Old Covenants
 The Three New Covenants

2 Samuel 7

The Three Hebrew Idioms

“build a house”
 “raise up a seed”
 “make a name”

Zephaniah, Malachi 4, Revelation

The Day of the Lord
 The Wrath of God

Those are not the only things I have explained for the benefit of “those who have insight” at the End of this Age; but if you have not yet been able to put those few things together as a basis for further insight, you might want to consider squaring up your relationship to the Lord and giving up your foolhardy pretense. As I have stated repeatedly over the years, the Living God is not the namby-pamby god of unconditional grace that dumb folks have made Him out to be. He is instead the angry, jealous God described in the Old Testament and the Book of Revelation. So if you want to go on believing otherwise, you had best have a go at finding the best asbestos suit that money can buy. You are certainly going to need it. But I digress; what I am going to explain now is what John the Revelator describes as a place in the desert:

that has been prepared there by the {living} God, so that He may provide her food there one thousand two hundred sixty days.

(Revelation 12:6b) —HSSB

Now I want to show you the response I got from ChatGPT when I asked about Church groups fleeing persecution in Europe during the 1600s and 1700s migrated to the English colonies in America. Here’s what I got:

1600s

1607–1620: English Separatists (Pilgrims)

Persecution: Separatists (later called Pilgrims) rejected the Church of England and faced legal penalties and harassment in England.

Migration: Some fled first to the Netherlands (Leiden) and then to North America.

1620: Mayflower voyage; established Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts.

1630s: Puritans

Persecution: Though part of the Church of England, Puritans faced increasing pressure from Archbishop Laud and King Charles I for their efforts to “purify” the Church.

Migration: The “Great Migration” (1630–1640) brought about 20,000 Puritans to Massachusetts Bay Colony and neighboring areas.

1634: Maryland founded as a refuge for Catholics

Persecution: English Catholics were barred from political power and discriminated against under Protestant rule.

Migration: Maryland was founded under Lord Baltimore as a haven for Catholics, though Protestants soon became the majority.

1650s–1670s: Quakers (Society of Friends)

Persecution: Quakers were imprisoned and fined in England for their nonconformist beliefs; also persecuted in Puritan New England.

Migration: Quakers found refuge in Rhode Island and later Pennsylvania.

1660s–1680s: Huguenots (French Protestants)

Persecution: Huguenots faced growing restrictions in Catholic France, culminating in the 1685 Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, which outlawed Protestantism.

Migration: Thousands fled to the colonies, settling in New York, South Carolina, Virginia, and elsewhere.

1680s: German and Swiss Anabaptist Groups (Mennonites, Amish)

Persecution: Harassed in Europe for rejecting infant baptism and military service.

Migration: Some immigrated to Pennsylvania, attracted by its religious tolerance.

1682: Pennsylvania founded by William Penn

Persecution: Penn, a Quaker, envisioned the colony as a place of religious freedom for persecuted groups; it became a major refuge for Quakers, Mennonites, Amish, Moravians, and other dissenters.

1700s

1709–1710: German Palatines (Lutherans and Reformed Protestants)

Persecution: Facing religious conflicts and economic hardship in the Rhineland due to French Catholic armies and wars.

Migration: Thousands moved to New York and Pennsylvania.

1730s–1750s: Moravians

Persecution: Harassed in Catholic regions of Central Europe (e.g., Bohemia, Moravia).

Migration: Established settlements in Pennsylvania (Bethlehem, Nazareth).

1740s–1750s: More German Pietist and Anabaptist Groups

Groups like Dunkers (German Baptists) continued arriving in Pennsylvania seeking freedom from religious coercion.

Late 1700s: Continued Arrival of Huguenots and Other Minorities

Smaller numbers of persecuted Protestants from Europe continued arriving throughout the century.

Key Themes

Massachusetts: Puritans and Pilgrims seeking freedom but often not tolerant toward other dissenters.

Rhode Island: Haven for religious dissenters like Baptists and Quakers.

Maryland: Intended as a Catholic refuge but later dominated by Protestants.

Pennsylvania: Most diverse and tolerant; attracted many persecuted groups.

Did you see the parabolic imagery of “The Woman” fleeing the Serpent Satan in any of those groups? If you did, take a look at the response I got from ChatGPT when I asked whether the United States Constitution is more concerned about freedom of speech or freedom of religion. The response might surprise those who always talk about freedom of speech as preeminent:

That’s an excellent and nuanced question, and the best way to answer it is to look at the historical context and the text of the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

1. Constitutional Text

The original U.S. Constitution of 1787 did not explicitly mention freedom of speech or religion. It mostly set up the structure of government.

These protections came with the First Amendment (ratified in 1791) as part of the Bill of Rights:

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press ...”

Both freedoms appear side by side, and the framers deliberately placed them together as core rights. The text itself does not rank one above the other.

2. Historical Context

Freedom of Religion:

Many colonists came from Europe fleeing religious persecution (Puritans, Quakers, Catholics, Huguenots, etc.).

Several states had established churches; there was tension between those who wanted religious liberty and those who wanted an official religion.

Madison and Jefferson were especially focused on preventing a national church and protecting the free exercise of religion.

Freedom of Speech:

Colonists had experienced censorship under British rule (e.g., prosecutions for criticizing officials).

Public debate about independence and government was central to the Revolution.

The framers wanted to protect political dissent and a free press to hold government accountable.

3. Which Was More “Important”?

The framers didn’t clearly prioritize one over the other. Instead, both were considered essential to liberty:

Religious liberty was viewed as a natural right tied to conscience.*

Free speech was essential for a functioning republic and democratic debate.*

Madison and others argued that rights of conscience (religion) are among the most sacred, while free expression is the foundation for political liberty. Both were seen as mutually reinforcing.

4. Early Legal and Political Practice

Early Supreme Court cases rarely addressed either right until the 20th century.

In practice, states continued religious establishments into the early 1800s (e.g., Massachusetts until 1833).

Freedom of speech was tested early (e.g., Sedition Act of 1798), showing that neither right was fully secure.*

Conclusion:

The Constitution was not more concerned with one than the other—the framers saw both as fundamental. If anything, the religion clauses were motivated by immediate historical experiences of persecution, while speech protections were motivated by the need for democratic governance. Both were essential pillars of liberty.

What’s the Point?

The vapid Communists and their college-educated (brainwashed) acolytes like James Comey and John Brennan have been intentionally boring their way into universities, political parties, government bureaucracy, the judicial system, and any and every other influential position they believed would help them turn the United States of America into a nation with a Communist one-party system of government based on the propaganda, misinformation, disinformation, outright lies, and intentional deception advocated by Vladimir Lenin over a century ago. That’s not going to happen.

As I heard Jerome Corsi (GodsFiveStones.com) say recently regarding the light that is currently shining on the Communists operating in this country, “It’s almost like an act of God.” Little does he know, it is an act of God; and the Truth regarding why God has chosen to take action against the Communists hinges on a single verse in the following passage:

⁵(3) Then {the woman} gave birth to a Son, a Male Who is going to shepherd all the Gentiles with an iron staff; and

(a) her Child was snatched up

(i) to the {living} God and
(ii) to His throne. ⁶And

(b) the woman fled into the desert where she has a place that has been prepared there by the {living} God, so that He may provide her food there one thousand two hundred sixty days.

(Revelation 12:5–6) —HSSB

In the wisdom of God, the United States of America was founded on the basic principle of freedom of religion, with the primary religion in mind being Christianity. Now that George Soros and his Communist buddies around the world have succeeded in bringing down the government in one country after another over the past several decades, it must be an awful feeling for them to be set back years in their plans to establish a Communist government here in this country. But I wonder how it felt when God slapped them down. ■

The Voice of Elijah® publishes articles based on the findings of The Elijah Project, a private research group headed by Larry D. Harper. In this column we seek answers to general-interest questions concerning the findings, purpose, and philosophy of this project.

Editor: We received the following question regarding the identification of Israel as the Jews. Would you please explain the Truth?

I just found you on YouTube. I don't yet know your position re: eschatology, but I have a question. I've just recently been introduced to the concept that the geopolitical state of Israel is not the Israel of God, that the Jewish age (the old covenant) ended in 70 AD with the destruction of Jerusalem and the Jewish temple. The new covenant is with the Church, the called-out assembly made up of both Gentile and Jew, and God is finished with the physical seed of Abraham. Yet, Zech 12:10 and Jn 18:8 tell us that when Jesus returns the Jews of that time will "look upon Him whom they pierced" and be saved "in a day."

Also, I'm hearing a lot today re: a post-millennial reign of Christ, that the Church will eventually bring in a golden age on the earth, and then Christ returns. Yet Lk 18:8 says that when He returns, will He find any faith? This is confusing to me and if you could, an explanation would be greatly appreciated.

Elijah: The answer to the question that was asked lies in an ability to tie together the information I have already provided in the following Elijah Project publications. But that is only possible if the person who asked the question has a genuine interest in knowing the Truth:

Not All Israel Is Israel (1991, 2009)
 Wanna Hear a Whopper? (1996, 2010)
 In the Image and Likeness of God (2003, 2005)
The Voice of Elijah® Newsletter (1990–present)
 The Mystery of Scripture, Volume 1 (1994, 2005)
 The Way, The Truth, The Life (1994, 1999, 2011)

The Truth is, all the eschatological beliefs in vogue today are based on a complete lack of understanding of the message of the Scriptures. Lacking that insight, none of the extant perspectives will be satisfying to anyone who is searching for a completely logical and rational explanation of the Truth. That is not only how God planned the End from the Beginning, but also precisely "The Way" Isaiah describes our situation here at the End of the Age:

¹[A Wilderness] [and a Parched Area] [will be elated],
 [And [a Desert Plain] will be happy];
 [Then She will blossom] [like a Rose].

²[She will [definitely] blossom];
 [She will [definitely] be happy] [with Happiness]
 [and shout joyfully].

[{The} Glory] [{of} Lebanon] [will be given] [to Her]—
 [{The} Splendor] [{of} Carmel]
 [and The Plain of Sharon].

[They] [will see] [the] Glory] [{of} His Majesty]—
 [{The} Splendor] [{of} our God].

³[Strengthen] [infirm] [Hands],
 [And [make [stumbling] Knees] unyielding].

⁴[Say] [to those {with} racing] [Heart]:
 "[Be strong!] [You must [not] fear].

[Guess what!] [Your God] [will come]
 [{with} Vengeance];

[He {is}] [{the} One weaned by] [God];
 [He will come], [and He will save you]."

⁵[At that time], [{the} Eyes of] [those who are blind]
 [will be opened];

[Even {the} Ears of] [those who are deaf]
 [will be opened].

⁶[At that time], [One Who Is Lame] [will leap]
 [like a Deer];

[And [{the} Tongue] [{of} One Who Is Mute]
 will shout joyfully],

[Because] [Waters] [will be split open]
 [in the Wilderness];

[And Gullies], [in {the} Desert Plain].

⁷[Then [an Intensely Hot Environment] will become]

[a Wetland];
 [And a Thirsty Ground], [Sources of] [Water];
 [A Place for Her to Lie Down] {is} [in {the} Habitat]
 [{of} Jackals]—
 [An Abode] [for Reeds] [and Rushes].
⁸[But [a Highway]—[even {The} Way]—
 will be] [there],
 [And [it] [will be called] “{The} Way”
 [{of} The Holy One].”
 [One Who Is Unclean] [will [not] cross over on it],
 [But it] {will be} [for him] [who is walking]
 [{in The} Way],
 [So Idiots] [will [not] wander around {on it}].
⁹[A Lioness] [will [not] be] [there],
 [And a vicious] [Animal] [will [never] climb up {on it}];
 [It will [not] be found] [there].
 [But [those who are being redeemed]
 will walk {on it}];
¹⁰[Those who are being ransomed by] [His Majesty]
 [will return],
 [And they will enter] [Zion] [with Joyful Shouts]
 [And [eternally burning] Joy] [on] [their Head].
 [They will attain] [Elation] [and Joy],
 [And [Sorrow] [and Moaning] will flee]!
 (Isaiah 35:1–10) —my interim translation

The meaning and significance of that entire chapter is based on the parabolic image of “The Way” and the Hebrew idiom “walk in The Way.” So without a knowledge of how Moses attached the idiom “walk in The Way” to the parabolic image of The Teaching of Moses, one is left with nothing more than sheer speculation as to what Isaiah wrote more than 2700 years ago to mock idiots who will never be able to muster the wisdom needed to “walk in The Way.”

I have already explained part of what True Believers need to know to “see” the underpinnings of the parabolic imagery that Moses used. You can find part of what you need to know in The Mystery of Scripture, Volume 1 and The Way, The Truth, The Life. If you put those things together with what I have told you elsewhere about the Passover Parable, the Realm of the Dead, and the Canaanite mythology related to the Sea of Waters and the Sea of El, you will be about half-way there. If that task is too much effort for you, take a good look at yourself in “the mirror”:

¹“[You must keep [all] [of The Commandment] [that] [I] [am commanding You] [Today] in mind] [so as to act in accordance with {it}], [so that] [You may live] [and become many], [and go in] [and take possession of] [The Land] [about [which] [His Majesty] swore an oath] [to your Fathers]. ²[And You must remember] [all] [of The Way] [that] [His Majesty], [Your God], [has made You walk] [This] [forty] [Years] [in {the} Wilderness] [in order to] [humiliate You]—[to test You], [to know] [what is] [in Your Heart]: [Would You keep [His Commandments] in mind] [or] [not]?”

³[So He humiliated You], [and He let You be hungry], [and He made You eat] [The Manna]—[which] [You had [not] known] [and [Your Fathers] had not known]— [in order to] [make You know] [that] [The {second} Adam] [will [not] live] [by] [The Bread] [alone], [because] [The {second} Adam] [will live] [in accordance with] [all] [of what comes out of] [{the} Mouth] [of His Majesty].”
 (Deuteronomy 8:1–3) —my interim translation

[A Lazy Person] [hides] [his Hand] [in {the} Dish];
 [He will [not] [even] bring it back] [to] [his Mouth].
 (Proverbs 19:24) —my interim translation

[A Lazy Person] [hides] [his Hand] [in {the} Dish];
 [He has a hard time] [bringing it back] [to] [his Mouth].
 (Proverbs 26:15) —my interim translation

The point is, God called me to restore the Truth; but He did not call me to make it easy for fools to comprehend it so they could distort it one final time. Consequently, that sick, sad event is not going to happen. I have scattered the Truth around here and there in the things I have produced over the past several decades. But now that the End is almost upon us, I am free to explain some things a bit more cohesively. So here goes.

The question that was asked is based on several seriously mistaken assumptions. It says this:

I’ve just recently been introduced to the concept that the geopolitical state of Israel is not the Israel of God, that the Jewish age (the old covenant) ended in 70 AD with the destruction of Jerusalem and the Jewish temple. The new covenant is with the Church, the called-out assembly made up of both Gentile and Jew, and God is finished with the physical seed of Abraham.

Here is the Truth regarding who is, and who is not, “Israel”:

1. God made the promise (a specific content) to Adam and Eve when He booted them out of the Garden.

2. Supernatural beings corrupted the promise (a specific content) prior to the time of Noah, so God used the Flood to “cut off” everyone but “The House” of Noah.

3. At the Tower of Babel, mankind corrupted the promise (a specific content) again, so God used the language barrier to “cut off” everyone other than a specific “House” in the lineage of Shem.

4. God “cut off” everyone but Abram and restricted the promise (a specific content) to his “House.”

5. After Abraham handed down the promise (a specific content) to Isaac, and Isaac handed down the promise (a specific content) to Jacob, Jacob divided up the promise (a specific content) and handed down the promise (a specific content) to his twelve sons.

6. Several hundred years later, Moses took the descendants of the twelve sons of Jacob out into the desert where they agreed to the terms of a legal agreement whereby they all became a corporate entity—what I call “Corporate Israel.” That legal agreement had a dual purpose; it not only functioned to unify the promise (a specific content), it also made Corporate Israel the Heir of the promise. But under the terms of that legal agreement, any individual who committed any one of several specific acts would immediately be “cut off from” Corporate Israel.

7. Immediately after agreeing to the terms of the legal agreement, the sons of Israel broke them; so God “cut them off from” Corporate Israel. That left Moses as “The Remnant” of Corporate Israel as well as the heir of the promise. But then, only because Moses insisted, God ratified a second legal agreement with the sons of Israel which allowed the individual members of Corporate

Israel to be “grafted back in” to Corporate Israel. After the sons of Israel had wandered forty years in the wilderness, God made a third legal agreement with the survivors; and Moses handed down the promise (a specific content) to the Corporate Body created under the terms of the third legal agreement.

8. Several hundred years later, after Corporate Israel had consistently failed to adhere to the terms of the third legal agreement, God “cut off” ten of the twelve “tribes” of Israel, proving—to anyone who is able to see the Truth—that the third legal agreement still allowed God to “cut off from” Israel anyone who displeased Him.

9. A century or so later, the Prophets Jeremiah and Ezekiel declared God was no longer interested in dealing with the sons of Israel under the terms of the third legal agreement. Instead, He was going to make a new legal agreement with each individual member of Corporate Israel and give them an opportunity to become an heir of the promise so they could inherit what was promised individually when God finally fulfilled the promise that He had made to Adam and Eve.

When John the Baptist was preaching in the wilderness, he was baptizing individuals. That fact is absolutely essential to understanding the new legal agreement God was offering. It was not made with the Corporate Body, it was ratified with the individual members of that Corporate Body. The problem was, nobody except Jesus could ever adhere to the terms of the legal agreement because it required perfect obedience. For that reason, when Jesus was baptized, God “cut off” all other members of Corporate Israel, just as John had warned them He would—using the same parabolic imagery that the Old Testament Prophets used in which people are depicted as “trees”:

⁷*But after seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them: “{You} descendants of vipers! Who gave you an indication that {you} should flee from the anger that is going to come? ⁸Therefore, produce fruit worthy of your apology; ⁹and do not assume that {you} can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as a father’; for I tell you that the {living}*

God can raise up children for Abraham out of these stones. ¹⁰But the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; therefore, every tree that is not producing exceptionally good fruit is going to be cut off and thrown into a fire.”
(Matthew 3:7–10) —HSSB

For the benefit—or detriment, as the case may be—of those who may not yet see the significance of what I have just explained, let me show you what Paul says about the Jews being “cut off from” Corporate Israel. If you have questions after that, you can go and read what I have written about Romans 11 over the past thirty-five years:

¹(1) Therefore I say, “Has the {living} God not repudiated His people?” Certainly not! For I am also an Israelite, one of Abraham’s seed, of Benjamin’s tribe.

²(2) The {living} God has not repudiated His people—whom He knew before. Or

(a) are you not aware of what the Scripture says about Elijah when he was filing a petition with the {living} God against Israel? ³“Your Majesty, THEY KILLED YOUR PROPHETS; THEY DEMOLISHED YOUR SACRIFICIAL ALTARS, AND I HAVE BEEN LEFT ALONE AS A SMALL REMNANT, AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY SOUL.”

⁴(b) But what does the divine communication say to him? “I HAVE LEFT BEHIND for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BENT A KNEE TO BAAL.”

⁵(c) So also, therefore, at the present time there has also come to be a remnant in accordance with {their} choice of a favor.

⁶(3) But if {salvation is} by a favor, {it is} no longer on the basis of works, otherwise the favor would no longer be a favor. ⁷What therefore?

(a) Israel has not gained possession of this thing that it is diligently seeking!

(b) The One Who is His choice has now gained possession of {it}, but

(c) the rest of {the members of Israel} have been turned to stone;

⁸(i) just as it has been written:

“THE {living} GOD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF DEEP SLEEP;

EYES THAT CANNOT SEE,
AND EARS THAT CANNOT HEAR,
UP TO THE DAY TODAY.”

⁹(ii) And {just as} David says:

“LET THEIR TABLE BE TURNED INTO A SNARE
AND INTO A TRAP,
EVEN INTO A DEADFALL TRAP
AND INTO PAYBACK TO THEM.

¹⁰LET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED,
SO THAT {they} CANNOT SEE,
AND BEND THEIR BACK DOWN AT ALL TIMES.”

¹¹(4) Therefore I say, did they not trip so that they fell? Certainly not!

(a) But the salvation for the Gentiles {is}

(i) because of their transgression

(ii) so as to make them jealous.

¹²(b) But if their transgression {is} the world’s wealth; and their failure, {the} Gentiles’ wealth; how much more {will} their fullness {be}?

¹³(5) But I am speaking to you, the Gentiles. Therefore, for as long as I am an Apostle of Gentiles, I do, in fact, glorify my service, ¹⁴if somehow I could make my flesh jealous and save some of them. ¹⁵For if His scrapping of them {is} the world’s reconciliation, what is their admission if not life from those who are dead?

¹⁶(1) So then, if the first fruit {is} holy, the lump {is} also; and if the root {is} holy, the branches {are} also.

¹⁷(a) And then, if some of the branches were broken off, and then you, who are a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them and became a fellow partaker of the sap of the root of the olive tree, ¹⁸do not speak derisively about the branches.

(b) And then, if you are speaking derisively about {them}, you are not carrying the root, but the root {is} carrying} you.

¹⁹(2) Therefore, you will say, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.” ²⁰Well said!

(a) They were broken off because of their lack of belief in God's promise, but

(b) you stand because of your belief in God's promise.

(c) You must not have your mind set on thoughts that are impressive, but be afraid. ²¹For if the {living} God did not spare the branches {that are} in accordance with nature, neither will He spare you.

²²(3) Therefore, take a look at God's benevolence and harshness:

(a) on the one hand, harshness for those who fell; but

(b) on the other hand, God's benevolence for you—if you stay there in His benevolence, since you could also be cut off.

²³(4) But even those individuals, if they do not stay there in their lack of belief in God's promise, will be grafted in; for the {living} God is able to graft them in again.

²⁴(a) For if you—{those who are}, in accordance with nature, part of the wild olive tree—were cut off and, contrary to nature, grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these individuals who are in accordance with nature be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵(b) For I do not want you, brothers, to not understand this mystery so that you are not "sensible" in yourselves. Because

(i) a hardening of a part in Israel has occurred until the time when the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.

²⁶(ii) Then just as it has been written, all Israel will be saved—in this way:

*"THE ONE WHO DELIVERS WILL COME FROM ZION;
HE WILL TURN THOSE WHO ARE DEPRAVED
AWAY FROM JACOB.*

²⁷*AND THIS {is} THE TESTAMENT FROM ME FOR THEM, when I take away their sins."*

²⁸(5) On the one hand, {they are} enemies with respect to the good news of the fulfillment of the promise because of you; but

(6) on the other hand, {they are} beloved because of their fathers—in accordance with His choice.

(Romans 11:1–28) —HSSB

That pretty much ends the conversation as to whether the Jews today have any part in Corporate Israel. They don't. The reason for that is, their ancestors refused to be "grafted back in" to Jesus Christ after His Resurrection. As for what the Jews will do when Christ returns, the following passage certainly does not apply to them, since they are not members of Corporate Israel:

⁷"[Then [His Majesty] will [first] save] [{the} Tents of] [Judah], [in order that] [The Beauty of] [The House] [of David] [and {the} Beauty of] [{the} Inhabitant of] [Jerusalem] [will [not] be greater] [than] [Judah]. ⁸[On [That] Day], [His Majesty] [will put a shield around] [behind] [{the} Inhabitant] [of Jerusalem]. [And [on [That] Day], [the one caused to stumble] [by them] will be] [the same as David], [and {the} House] [of David] [the same as God]—[the same as a Messenger] [of His Majesty]—[before them]. ⁹[And it will be] [on [That] Day], [I will seek] [to wipe out] [all] [The Nations] [that come] [against] [Jerusalem]. ¹⁰[Then I will pour out] [a Spirit] [of a Favor] [and a Petition for Favor] [on] [{the} House] [of David] [and on] [{the} Inhabitant] [of Jerusalem]; [and they will look] [at Me], [the One Whom] [they stabbed], [and they will lament] [over Him]—[the same Lamentation as] [over] [The Only Child]—[and express bitterness] [over Him]—[the same as expressing bitterness] [over] [The Firstborn]."
(Zechariah 12:7–10) —my interim translation

That passage is talking about what is going to happen on the seventh "day" of Creation, when "The House" of Judah—Jesus Christ—becomes One with all who have accepted Him as a sacrifice for their sins and the nuclear holocaust begins. It has nothing to do with the Jews. That lie is nothing more than a fabrication of the Dispensationalists who believe it. The Apostle John is talking about the same thing when he says this:

¹(1) Take a look at what sort of love the Father has given us: that we may be called "God's children!" And we are! For this reason the world does not know us, because it has never known Him!

²(2) Beloved brothers, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet been made visible.

(a) We are aware that when He becomes visible, we will be just like Him, because we will see Him just as He is.

in this life is going to just keep on keepin' on. The Truth is, it's always what you don't know that does you in (that's an idiom); and what this generation does not know is quite obviously a whole lot greater than what they do know. There is a parabolic "hurricane" headed our way, and the best thing for you to do is go "inside" and prepare to "ride out" "The Storm."

The Voice of Elijah®, July 2009, p. 20

If you have been born again and you intend to successfully navigate the "time of distress" that is only just now beginning, you are going to have to take on the "hard-core" mind-set that every good soldier masters. I have been called to prepare you for the task, so pay close attention: No matter what others believe or say about the one who is the enemy of your soul, just keep your focus on what Jesus said about his basic nature and activity: (John 8:42–47).

The Voice of Elijah®, October 2011, p. 27

The only claim I have ever made about myself is this: God called me to restore and teach The Apostolic Teaching in order to prepare True Believers for the appearance of the Antichrist. In that, I am doing nothing more than making the same claim that every other minister of the Church should be making.

The Voice of Elijah®, January 2013, pp. 25–26

The Flood that Noah faced pales in comparison to the nuclear holocaust that Satan has planned for this generation. Planet Earth—"The Harlot," Babylon the Great—is going to burn just as Zephaniah (and John the Revelator) said she would. So you can believe it now and get prepared for that towering inferno, or you can regret it later on.

The Voice of Elijah®, July 2017, p. 16

For those of you who can "see," now is the time to prepare.

The Voice of Elijah® Update, September 2020, p. 19

Satan's objective is to make sure you remain completely complacent and unconcerned about your eternal destination. God called me to wake you up and prepare you for what lies ahead.

(Revelation 12:7–9) How do you suppose we get there from here? We just sit back, watch the Communists keep pushing their stupid Utopia-on-Earth beliefs, and prepare for the Coming of the Lord.

The Voice of Elijah®, April 2022, p. 27

Get up, buckle up, brace yourself, and prepare for "a time of distress that has not been since there was a nation until that time" (Dan. 12:1). It's almost here.

The Voice of Elijah® Update, August 2022, p. 5

Things may have changed for you over the years since your encounter with the mercy of the Living God, but if you can still identify with the experience I just described, you need to be aware of some additional information God called me to provide. You will need it in coming months and years so you can be prepared for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and avoid being one of those the Lord had in mind when He said this: (Matthew 7:21–23).

One final admonition that is even more urgent today than it was when it was written in an article aptly titled "You Snooze ... You Lose":

I also encourage those of you who have eyes to see and ears to hear that you remain stone-cold sober from now until the End. Drink the water, not the wine. Before long you'll be able to drink your fill of wine—God's wine. He has a new wine prepared for those who are wise. They will forever drink it together with Him in the Kingdom, just as Jesus said (Luke 22:18), with each one sitting under his own vine and under his own fig tree.

Just be patient. Keep waiting faithfully. He won't be in the wind, the earthquake, or the fire. But He will come to rescue everyone who is humble enough to listen. And learn. And wait. All the while safeguarding the treasure He has hidden in the field. And what a treasure that is!

accusations against the prophets themselves and their churches, and insisting on the authority of the bishop's predecessors in the see, compelled him to recall the pacific letter which he had issued, as well as to desist from his purpose of acknowledging the said gifts.

By this Praxeas did a twofold service for the devil at Rome: he drove away prophecy, and he brought in heresy; he put to flight the Paraclete, and he crucified the Father. Praxeas' tares had been moreover sown, and had produced their fruit here also, while many were asleep in their simplicity of doctrine; but these tares actually seemed to have been plucked up, having been discovered and exposed by him whose agency God was pleased to employ. Indeed, Praxeas had deliberately resumed his old (true) faith, teaching it after his renunciation of error; and there is his own handwriting in evidence remaining among the carnally-minded, in whose society the transaction then took place; afterwards nothing was heard of him.

We indeed, on our part, subsequently withdrew from the carnally-minded on our acknowledgment and maintenance of the Paraclete. But the tares of Praxeas had then everywhere shaken out their seed, which having lain hid for some while, with its vitality concealed under a mask, has now broken out with fresh life. But again shall it be rooted up, if the Lord will, even now; but if not now, in the day when all bundles of tares shall be gathered together, and along with every other stumbling-block shall be burnt up with unquenchable fire.

In the course of time, then, the Father forsooth was born, and the Father suffered,—God Himself, the Lord Almighty, whom in their preaching they declare to be Jesus Christ. We, however, as we indeed always have done (and more especially since we have been better instructed by the Paraclete, who leads men indeed into all truth), believe that there is one only God, but under the following dispensation, or oikonomia, as it is called, that this one only God has also a Son, His Word, who proceeded from Himself, by whom all things were made, and without whom nothing was made.
